

EXHIBIT A-1

Spanish To English translation:

Dear Lawyers:

I write to you again to inform when I start on the judicial center of Bayamon, we signed documents from the court (1970) when we have all the rights to receive, and we don't receive anything. The government does not pay us our retirement funds. We spend a lot of time working and we haven't received any payments. Our lawyer won the case and still nothing has been given to us. We don't ask for anything else but the money we are supposed to receive. The money I have right now is not enough for living day to day.

Dear Lawyers,

I am once again addressing you to you to inform you that, when I started working for the judiciary, at the Bayamon Judicial Center, we signed some documents at the Administrative Office of the Courts in 1970, where it was reported that all the [pension] rights that we have were acquired, they were deducted from our salary, the government did not contribute anything to retirement and pension payments. We paid for all those benefits that would have been granted to us once the 30-year term of service was completed. Therefore, we completed our [time], and we have paid, cent by cent, for our retirement, and the government has nothing to do with our retirement benefits. If the government got dirty and put Puerto Rico in these bankrupt conditions, it is because of the government officials, who have changed every 4 years, and they were the ones who embroiled Puerto Rico. Hdez. [Hernández] Colón has a house in Spain, Padilla has a house in Orlando, Rosselló left for New York with funds from the people. However, what we have is our salary that we earned through our efforts, and they want to take it away from us. Have the politicians gone to bed without dinner? No. The politicians can buy whatever they want, even expensive cars. We, however, have to put together dollar by dollar to be able to pay for what we need, food and clothing. One day, you will be at the bottom, and we will be on the top, because we have sacrificed for our salary and well-being, paying day by day through our efforts. So, the Romerazo Law was passed, and they still haven't paid us [under that law]. Our lawyer, Alberto Aresti, Esq., won the case and they still have not paid the judgment. The Board has the money, holding on to it as it was theirs. We are waiting for the payment to solve our problems; therefore, we hope that you will see what can be resolved, and make the payment that is due to us. Please resolve the issue of a dignified retirement for all retirees, and don't let them touch even one cent of our money, and make them pay us the claim that we have fought for with so much effort, and which the Board didn't want to pay. Thank you for your attention. I am yet another pensioner relying on her pension to pay for medication, housing, food, clothes, etc., and I don't have enough to pay for all that.

Thank you!
